TAE4HA 2017 Conference Tours & Descriptions

“Go Wine”-- Llano Estacado Winery is one of the largest and premier wineries in Texas. Come and enjoy learning about the vineyards, facilities and about wines of the south plains. Tour includes tasting.

Can hold 40

“Go Sweet”-- Roll up your sleeves and get ready for those creative juices to flow as you learn basic cake decorating skills by decorating a 6" cake at Sweet Celebrations Bakery. Chef Sherry will teach agents how to smooth ice, pipe borders, cake writing and techniques to make simple flowers. These skills would add a new aspect to the 4-H Food and Nutrition project. Agents will also enjoy learning how this bakery began and about the edible creations available at the bakery.

Can hold 20

“Go Swine”-- When it comes to raising elite show hogs and some of the nation’s hottest boars, Wintex Farms, in Lubbock, is leading the pack. The father and son duo of Jay and Will Winter have raised champion barrows at every major show in Texas as well as countless champions across the county. Join us for a behind the scenes look at their operation, a short 10 miles from the Overton.

Can hold 20

“Go Stitch”-- Red Barn Ranch Quilting and Retreat Center provides a modern day twist on rustic farm life complete with fabric studio. The center will also showcase some simple ready to make sewing projects agents can use with kids. They will then teach a make and take project for participants.

Can Hold 20

“Go Grow”-- With “Farm to Table” interest increasing, this tour will highlight greenhouse production with a tour of the Texas Tech Greenhouse. It will also showcase the Texas Tech Meats Lab with a discussion of meat cuts and processing. You don’t want to miss your chance to grow on this tour.

Can hold 20

Evening Activities

Tuesday Evening

Will you be arriving on Tuesday? Join us for a fun night in the hospitality room! We will have a full nacho bar & queso fountain. The hospitality room will be located at the Overton Hotel.

Wednesday Evening

You won't want to miss our Wednesday night social at 'The Range!' The Range is a one of a kind place with a driving range, cold drinks, live music and other outdoor games!

Thursday Evening

Although this excursion is optional, you can't come to Lubbock without visiting the famous, Cactus Theater! Built in 1937, the Cactus has hosted thousands of artists over the decades! The Cactus has a cash bar and concessions available. This excursion includes entrance to the Cactus Show for the evening. Within walking distance of the Cactus are the Blue Light, Louie Louie's Piano Bar and many other great Depot District venues! This excursion is an additional $25 per person.

Breakout Sessions

Some conference secrets must be kept! Attendees will attend a total of two professional development breakout sessions. You will choose your session upon your arrival to the conference. Each session will include hands-on, real world application to benefit you and your 4-H program!

Make plans to attend the 2017 TAE4-HA Conference in Lubbock! Bring your spouse and your children for a fun-filled week of professional development and networking.

All registration will be done online at tae4ha.tamu.edu.

Late Registration July 7th - Onsite: $225
